

Life Leadership Ranch Day

"Callings, Choices, and Courage"

Monday, July 22, 2019, 9 a.m. – 1 p.m.

Presented by Camp Rockhurst,
Life Leaders Institute, and Triple D Ranch and Farm

To inspire young citizens to Plan and Lead in Life serving others by learning and developing callings, choices, courage, patriotism, and perseverance.

8:30-9 a.m. Depart / 9-9:30: Arrive / Program 9:30-1 p.m.
354 County Road 33 / Calera, Alabama 35040

9:30

- ◆ See some of the horses (Stay near an adult. Enjoy.)
- ◆ Bow to the Flag, Indian Legend (Indy, 11 years old, Paint Horse, was not wanted by his first owners but has become loyal and a leader).
- ◆ Pledge of Allegiance to the U.S. Flag, Patriotism in Action Garden, Barefield Flag Pole. Stand near the Dunn Dogwood. Led by Charlie and Aniyah, possibly with Sergeant Major Mike Oakley (US Army)
- ◆ 1 Minute on Alabama character trait "Patriotism" plus the distinctive meaning of "Patriotism in Action" by Dr. David Dyson.

9:45-10:30 Callings, Choices, and Courage--Ranch Room, Farm House

- ◆ See photos from Camp Rockhurst last year on the big screen
- ◆ Welcome to Triple D, home of Life Leadership Ranch Day, Dr. David
- ◆ 1 Minute on Alabama character trait "Courage" by Dr. David
- ◆ Write a few goals, ideas, questions, or needs for your Plans for School and Life
- ◆ "Courage" devotional, Mr. Terry, plus write a sentence describing your best-self fulfilling courage.

Activity options

10:40-11:10

1. Horses: mount and sit on a horse, photo
2. Fishing: fish in the pond behind the barn (catch and release)

11:15-11:45

1. Fishing
2. Horses

12:00-12:45

- ◆ Picnic: hot dogs, chips, drinks, cookies....on the Farm House counter; beverages on the front porch in the barrel cooler. Seating options: ranch room, table picnic table in the front yard, bench on the front porch, swing and table on the screened porch

You can enjoy food and relaxing or do more after you finish—options:

- ◆ See the Farmall Tractor (60 years old and still runs)
- ◆ See the old Ford tractor (40 years old and still works on the farm)
- ◆ Hayride to the south pond and back (stay seated)
- ◆ Visit dogs (adopted after abandoned--Cowgirl, Buck, Chief, and Lady)
- ◆ See the rescued fillies: Scarlett, Spirit, Storm, plus Princess Katie
- ◆ Swing under the ceiling fan on the screened porch (cats may hide)
- ◆ See more horses: Patriot, Star, Indy, Cocoa, Cody
- ◆ See donkeys: Honk, June, Jill

12:45-1

Gather in the front corral at or near the picnic table to share progress:

- ◆ What did you learn about yourself?
- ◆ What will you do differently?

1 p.m. Return to Camp Rockhurst for the afternoon

Team Developing Students of Courage and Character

Camp Rockhurst

Mr. Terry Slaughter
Mr. Kevin
Miss Sarah
Miss Hayden

Life Leaders and Triple D Ranch and Farm

Dr. David Dyson: hosting you, horses, seminar, anything you need with Miss Noel: ranch intern (pre-vet), horses

Mrs. Karen: hot dogs for lunch, her rescued horses with Lexi, helping with dogs and Mykah helping guest corral

Mrs. Becky: horse grooming and helping with horses

Mr. Steve ("Pops"), fishing and sharing his grandfather's Farmall Tractor with Bennett; William; Sam, and Brooks helping with fishing

Mr. Kyle: photos, video, photos on the screen in the house

Triple D
RANCH & FARM

Education and events are supported by Life Leaders America, a 501 c3 nonprofit. www.LifeLeadersInstitute.org
Property, facilities, and animals are supported by Triple D Ranch and Farm. www.TripleDRanchAndFarm.com
Facebook: Life Leaders Ranch Ed, Triple D Ranch and Farm