Veterans Day honors Veterans, Liberty, Peace...

Telegram from General Eisenhower to Raymond Weeks and Birmingham, November 11, 1947

"Your World Peace Dinner demonstrates the realization of the Birmingham Veterans that peace is something to be secured and perpetuated by thought and work and sacrifice. Everyone of us has the personal task of supporting our country's continuing efforts to establish a world system characterized by justice and respect for the rights of all.

America must remain the leader and champion of all who likewise seek to eliminate force as the decisive element in relationships with others and to exercise that leadership. Under the conditions of today, she must be strong morally, economically, and militarily.

I wish you every success in your purpose of arousing all American citizens to the need for cooperating among ourselves to the utmost so as to achieve the greatest of all goals—assurance of enduring peace."

GEN Dwight D. Eisenhower Chief of Staff, U.S. Army Washington, DC

Character Traits Education

Veterans have long been examples for students in educational programs. Now, teachers increasingly include the who-wherewhen Veterans Day began in Alabama.

Alabama adopted 25 character traits in 1995 to teach for 10 minutes daily, along with The Pledge of Allegiance. The Veterans Day Founding History of purpose and action supports teaching 5 of Alabama's traits:

Patriotism Courage Perseverance Loyalty Citizenship

We recommend adding 5 traits & values:

Freedom
Peace
Honor
Trust
Leadership
